Dear Friends:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for the T-shirts you sent to me and for the support and encouragement that you have offered with it. I am overwhelmed by the generosity of the American people and by their commitment to the success of this Administration.

As you know, we are facing many challenges in the coming years. By joining together in a new season of American renewal, we can face the difficult tasks before us. Your participation is essential for the success of our efforts.

Again, thank you for your thoughtfulness. I look forward to working with you for a better future for our country.

Sincerely,

Al Gore
